

Letterkenny Riding Club Easter Challenge 2020

Down

2. Don't be one!
3. Trot along the Patrick Pearse
4. Your baby might need this martingale
5. Worthy of the capital letter
6. Do duck quacks?
7. A kind release
- 9 A useful bit of tack, especially for 19 across
11. Feet or hair madam?
13. A Pakistani pad
14. Not quite all there
16. A pleasant way to reach the stars
18. The outside of this is good for the inside of a man
21. Only an archer would plant this in a field
24. From leg to stomach these are a dangerous irritation
25. The oldest member of Letterkenny Riding Club
26. A good jumper will
29. This might stop you getting above yourself
31. HIS precursor
32. You're in for a soak if this beats the oak
34. Right, left, long, short, inside or outside?
35. Tepid continental
37. Part of the controls
38. You don't want to sprain this ankle
42. An abbreviated Irish bred
45. Keeps all of our digestions healthy
49. 51 across would know how to do this to a horse
50. Some stallions can be
52. You don't want to be
54. No halo for this weak beer
55. We might all be by the time lockdown ends
56. Reynard might use one to tidy up
58. If this is before 32 down you're in for a soak

59. An ancient contest

61. Medicinal bedding. Very groovy baby!